

Having aim in the view point of Holy Qoran And transeendental theosophy

Ali Reza Farsinezhad¹

Abstract

There has been controversy on compatibility or incompatibility of transcendent Philosophy teachings with the teachings of the Qur'an and revealed. This paper aims to investigate the coordination of transcendent Philosophy teachings with the teachings of the Quran, examined the purposefulness from the perspective of the Holy Quran and the transcendent Philosophy, in three domain; the principle of finality, ultimate cause and goal of acts of God, with the analytical comparative method, and came to the conclusion that the creation is purely teleological from the perspective of the Holy Quran and the transcendent Philosophy; the ultimate cause of the creation of the world is human and The ultimate cause of the creation of the human is Essence of God; the purpose of The Divine Acts is the same Essence of God. so it can be said in general, the ultimate cause and purpose of God's actions, is The Unique nature of God. Therefore the viewpoint of the transcendent Philosophy is Coordinated with the teachings of the Holy Qur'an and there is no conflict even differences in this field.

Keywords: "Holy Qur'an", "transcendent Philosophy", "Purposefulness", "The Divine Acts", "Essence of God"

1. Shiraz university .

Alifarsi@shiraz.ac.ir